STORYLINE

Klaus is a ten year-old boy, quite lonely and taciturn, sometimes experiencing fits of passion. He is, however, passionate about entomology. His parents (mother in advanced pregnancy) both simple and humble persons, seems resigned to the austerity and instability of their son.

One night, Klaus receives the visit of a strange creature, creating confusion in his insect collection. Therefore, this entity will give no rest to the boy. The creature is growing day after day, and it becomes urgent for Klaus to get rid of this troublesome character.

Klaus, thinking hear the monster in the kitchen, rushes blindly into the room, broom in hand, to find himself face to face with his parents cuddling a newborn. At this time, he finally becomes aware of this new arrival in the family. His world collapse, but a new world awaits him.
